Roberto asks: How is this Hazelnut Drying Equipment Microwave Drying Machine different from a traditional dryer?

Me: Microwave Oven Hazelnut Drying Roasting Machine is different from the traditional drying method, which is the overall heating, because the external heat is easy to distribute, so its heat conduction direction and moisture diffusion direction are the same.

Compared with the traditional drying method, it has the advantages of large drying rate, energy saving, high production efficiency, uniform drying, clean production, easy to realize automatic control and improve product quality.
